

ANNOUNCING OUR 2021 INNOVATION EXPO INNOVATION CHAMPION SPONSOR – University of Guelph!

GUELPH, ON 2021 09 13 - Innovation Guelph is hosting its third annual Innovation Expo on October 21, 2021.

This significant event celebrates and showcases innovation with over 100 companies exhibiting, a panel lunch, investors, networking and engaging keynotes.

"We are so pleased to have the University of Guelph as one of our valued Champion Sponsors. Many of the companies we work with are sprouted at the University and we love watching them grow into these amazing businesses," said Mickey Campeau, Innovation Expo manager. "

As an Innovation Champion, the University of Guelph is demonstrating their leadership in innovation through their support of this event. "Entrepreneurship is woven into the University's culture," said Jessica Bowes, vice president research, innovation knowledge mobilization. "We are proud to support this event that showcases many of the companies both the university and Innovation Guelph have supported to grow and to contribute to our economy."

Who should attend this event? Entrepreneurs, corporate buyers, consumers, students, investors, funders, government supporters, members of the press, specialists, job searchers, inquisitive members of society, community leaders, coaches, parents, children, dreamers, and those needing inspiration. October 21 is a day for everyone.

"Collaboration and partnerships strengthen the entrepreneurial ecosystem," said Anne Toner Fung CEO, Innovation Guelph. "We appreciate the continued support of the University of Guelph and will look forward to their strong presence at the Innovation Expo again this year."

The public is encouraged to visit the Innovation Expo website for more information and to register to attend the October 21, 2021 event from the comfort of their home or office.
